Stockholm, May 15. N. S. Two days ago a Yacht arrived here from Finland, with an Account ſent by Captain Wrangel, Commander of a Swediſh Frigat called the Wolgaſt, that on the 8th Inſtant two of our Galleys were ſent to the Road of Abo, in order to diſcover the Poſture of the Enemy thereabouts. Upon their arrival they perceived a great number of Boats, together with ſix ſmall Veſſels lying at Anchor. As ſoon as the Muſcovites obſerved the two Galleys, they came out immediately with about eighty Boats well Mann'd with Soldiers and Rowers, and attack'd them with great Vigour on all Sides: But our Ships made a brave Defence till Night, when the noiſe of firing brought the Wolgaſt and another Frigat to their Aſſiſtance. Upon this addition of Force there enſued a very ſharp Action, in which moſt of the Muſcovite Boats were ſunk or taken. We have likewiſe made our ſelves Maſters of the ſix ſmall Veſſels, wherein was ſome ſome Ammunition, which has been ſent to Admiral Watrang's Squadron at Hangud. In the Boats we took near Three hundred Priſoners, ſome of whom are already brought to this Place, and have inform'd us, that the Muſcovites have very few Troops about Abo, and that they have not yet made ſufficient Preparations any where for a Deſcent into this Kingdom.

Berlin, June 2. N. S. On the 28th paſt the King went to Brandenbourg, and yeſterday he proceeded to Magdebourg, in order to review the Troops which are quarter'd in thoſe Parts. His Majeſty is expected here again very ſoon, and on the 28th he intends to ſet out for Cleves. Baron Sparr is gone to conſult with Count Welling at Hamburgh, upon ſome Affairs relating to Sweden, after which he will return to this Place. Count Rothemburg, who accompanied him from France, is to reſide here in Quality of the moſt Chriſtian King's Miniſter to this Court. Monſieur Achenbach, who was Secretary of the Embaſſy at Utrecht, is appointed to go to Petersbourg, in the room of Monſieur Slippenbach, who will be recalled very ſoon from thence. Monſieur Dankelman, Preſident of the Regency of Magdebourg, has been ſuſpended from his Employment, upon ſome Complaints that were made of him by the Court of Hanover. Notwithſtanding the Declaration which was lately read in the Churches, that for the future no Perſon ſhould be preſs'd into the Service, the Levies are ſtill carried on here in the ſame manner as they were before.

Hamburgh, June 8. N. S. We are informed, that Monſieur Ducker, Governor of Stralſund, has lately taken Eleven Dutch Veſſels laden with Corn from Riga. He has likewiſe given Directions to the Swediſh Captains to ſeize the Ships of any Nation whatever that come from the Countries conquered by the Czar. Monſieur de Broſſe, Envoy of King Auguſtus at the Court of Denmark, who was recalled by his Maſter, and was preparing to return home, has ſince received Orders to continue at Copenhagen. Monſieur Goertz, a little before his departure from Berlin, preſented a Memorial to the King of Pruſſia, ſetting forth the Engagements his Majeſty had entered into with the Houſe of Gottorp, and deſiring he would accordingly take effectual Meaſures to oblige the King of Denmark to reſtore the Dutchies of Sleſwick and Holſtein to the Duke his Maſter; but his Pruſſian Majeſty returned no Anſwer to this Memorial. It is ſaid, King Auguſtus has ſent Orders to the Great General of the Crown, to let the King of Sweden paſs with his whole Retinue through Poland. Letters from Petersbourg, of the 15th paſt, bring an Account, that the Czar's Fleet was ſtill detain'd by violent Winds in the Port of Cronſlot. The ſame Advices add, that Fifteen thouſand Men were embark'd on board the Tranſport Ships, and Nine thouſand on board the Men of War, which were ready to ſet ſail as ſoon as the Weather would permit.

Hanover, June 8. N. S. The Court is gone to paſs the Summer at Herenhauſen. The Regiment of Foot-Guards has been review'd near this City in the Preſence of the Elector, who intends in like manner to review the reſt of his Troops, and thoſe which are at a diſtance, have receiv'd Orders to March hither for that purpoſe. Count Flemming and Count Wackerbart, Plenipotentiaries of King Auguſtus, are arrived at Brunſwick, where the Conferences are not yet begun for Treating of a Peace in the North. They write from Petersbourg, that the Czar had lately Publiſh'd ſeveral Declarations, particularly one to eſtabliſh the Birthrights of elder Sons, and another commanding all married Women, whoſe Husbands are abſent in Foreign Countries, to repair to the ſame Places.

Hague, June 12. N. S. Yeſterday Monſieur de Chateauneuff, Ambaſſador of France, was in Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, on the Subject of the Treaty of Peace between his Catholick Majeſty and this Republick. The States have commanded their Plenipotentiaries to go immediately to Utrecht, in order to finiſh that Treaty; and the Marquis de Monteleone, Ambaſſador of Spain, intends to ſet out in a Day or two for the ſame Place.
